

Come-See-Me Festival 2018 Festival Chair Biography

The Come-See-Me Festival is pleased to have Chet Tucker this year's Festival Chair.

Chet began volunteering with the Festival in 2007, when he served as a team leader. Since then Chet has worn many hats including Team Leader for Sports, Entertainment and the Tailgate & Fireworks Extravaganza before serving as a Festival Vice-Chair in 2016 & 2017.

Born and raised in Rock Hill, Tucker is happily married to his younger and more attractive wife of 4 years, Kristine. They, along with their two dogs Chili and Pepper, make their home in the 17 Acres neighborhood in Rock Hill.

As a graduate of Northwester High School and the University of South Carolina, Tucker has worked for the Upper Palmetto YMCA since 2004. Outside of the Y and Come-See-Me, Tucker is a frequent voice on WRHI High School Football and Basketball broadcasts. Other organizations Tucker supports include the Cherokee Conservation Corps, Chester Counter Chamber of Commerce, Rotary Club of Chester County, York County Sports Hall of Fame, and the United Way of York and Chester Counties.
