

Southeast Tourism Society Selects the Come-See-Me Festival
as an 'STS Top 20 Event'

ATLANTA, Ga. (1/14/2019) – Southeast Tourism Society has named the Come-See-Me Festival as one of the STS Top 20 Events in the Southeast for April 2019.

This year's Come-See-Me Festival is April 4-13, 2019. The STS Top 20 Festival and Event Awards have highlighted programs around the Southeast since 1985.

Travel industry experts select 20 events per month, and STS publicizes them throughout the United States. The complete list is published on two websites: Southeast Tourism Society and Travel Media Press Room.

The Come-See-Me Festival is Rock Hill's annual salute to spring. Each year, this ten-day festival brings over 80 events and activities to over 100,000 attendees. Loaded with frogs, music, and fun, the festival brings together friends, neighbors, and festival-lovers from all over the United States and the world.

Come-See-Me is considered the largest, all-volunteer festival in South Carolina and attracted nearly 130,000 participants in 2018. Guests came from 27 states and seven countries.

"The Top 20 Festival and Event Program is celebrating 34 years of spotlighting the best festivals and events in the Southeast. Our goal is to provide well-deserved accolades for the dedicated event organizers and additional media exposure for their events," said Monica Smith, president and CEO of the Southeast Tourism Society. "The Southeast offers so many unique, year-round, opportunities for attendees to create memories and support an industry that is an economic generator for its community."
