

PRESS RELEASE: 2020 COME-SEE-ME FESTIVAL CHAIR

The Come-See-Me Festival is excited to announce that the 2020 Festival Chair will be Susan Golder.

Prior to her role as chair, Susan served as the Vice Chair for both the 2018 and 2019 festivals, Team Leader for the Mayor's Frog Jump and Director of Festival Communications, overseeing all marketing and public relations for the Festival.

In addition to the Come-See-Me Festival, Susan spent the past 12 years of her professional career with Comporium and currently serves as residential sales manager. She is involved in several other organizations in York County, including an active member of the Woodland United Methodist Church, Winthrop University Athletic Club and Comporium Pioneers. Susan has held additional leadership roles including Church Council and chair of the Worship Committee for WUMC, Comporium Team Leader for the York County Regional Chamber of Commerce membership campaign and co-chair of the Comporium Pioneer Membership Committee.

Susan is a Rock Hill native, attending local Rock Hill schools and is a graduate of Winthrop University. She and her daughter Addison live in Rock Hill and enjoy spending time volunteering and supporting the Rock Hill community.

