

Elizabeth Williams Named 2022 Come-See-Me Festival Chair
2022 Festival to Be Held April 21-30

ROCK HILL, S.C. — May 21, 2021 — The Come-See-Me Festival is pleased to announce that Elizabeth Williams will serve as the 2022 Festival Chair. The announcement was made along with the dates for next year's Festival, April 21-30, 2022.

Elizabeth started volunteering with Come-See-Me in 2014, serving as a Team Leader for the Come-See-Me Festival Parade, Everything Trucks and Hops at the Park before serving as Vice Chair for the 2019, 2020 and 2021 Festivals.

In addition to her involvement with Come-See-Me, Elizabeth has been very involved in many other community organizations. She is an active member of St John's United Methodist Church, where she currently serves on the Audit Committee and is a former Chair of the Children's Council. She is a Sustaining Member and Past President of the Junior Welfare League, currently serving as the Sustainer Representative to the Board. She also serves as Treasurer for the Cherry Park Elementary School of Language Immersion PTO and will serve as Vice President next school year.

She also enjoys volunteering with several other nonprofit agencies in the York County area.

A Rock Hill native, Elizabeth is a graduate of Northwestern High School and Winthrop University, where she majored in Business Administration with a concentration in Accounting. She currently works at Leitner Construction Company, serving as the Director of Finance and Administration.

Elizabeth is married to Damien, a City of Rock Hill employee. They have one son, Benjamin, and a lively Labrador Retriever, Rascal. Elizabeth will be the second Festival Chair from her extended family. Her first cousin twice removed, Johnny Gill, served as Festival Chair in 1966-1967.

About the Come-See-Me Festival

Since 1962, the Come-See-Me Festival has been Rock Hill, S.C.'s annual salute to spring. It is considered the largest all-volunteer festival in South Carolina and welcomes tens of thousands of attendees each year. Come-See-Me is a four-time winner of the South Carolina Event of the Year by the South Carolina Festival & Event Association, most recently in 2019, and is perennially named to the Southeast Tourism Society's Top 20 Spring Festivals. To learn more about the Come-See-Me Festival, visit <https://www.comeseeme.org/>.

###